
2018 ALASKA TRIBAL COURT DIRECTORY

Prepared by Alaska Legal Services Corporation

Foreword & Acknowledgements

In 2012, due to the support and efforts of many people and organizations, Alaska Legal Services Corporation (ALSC) released the first Alaska Tribal Court Directory.

The original directory was compiled from information shared by 90 Alaska Tribes through ALSC's 2011 tribal court survey, supplemented by additional information from Carol Brown and April January of the Association of Village Council Presidents and Lisa Jaeger of Tanana Chiefs Conference. The tribal court survey was made possible by the support and cooperation of Gloria Gorman from the Bureau of Indian Affairs and Diane Payne of the Justice for Native Children Projects.

This updated directory includes information from 102 Alaska Tribes, which was gathered through a new survey issued in partnership with the Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (ANDVSA). Changes and additions have been made where Tribes provided updated contact information and data about the types of cases their tribal courts handle. Additional information was gathered and shared with ALSC by Denise Nerby and Sinea Williams of the Association of Village Council Presidents.

A big thank you to all of the Tribes that responded to our requests for information and shared valuable data with us on the critical work Alaska tribal courts are doing to serve their children, families, and communities.

As a word of caution, there may be Tribes operating tribal courts that are not in this directory. This directory should not be used as a definitive statement of the number of tribal courts operating in Alaska or of the types of cases being heard by tribal courts. We continue to envision this directory as a work in progress, and hope that it will continue to become more comprehensive in later editions. If you have any corrections or additions that you would like included in our next edition, please call ALSC's Juneau office at (907) 586-6425 or (800) 789-6426.

In addition to the many thanks owed to those listed above, we would also like to specifically thank Christine Pate from ANDVSA, the Alaska Native Justice Center for their consistent support and partnership, the Bureau of Justice Assistance for supporting our efforts regarding Alaska tribal court enhancement, the State of Alaska Department of Labor, which approved our use of its maps without charge, and to all of the ALSC staff, past and present, who contributed to making this directory possible.
