SUBJECT: Additional Fee Exemptions under Administrative Rule 9(f)(6)

This bulletin is adopted pursuant to Administrative Rule 9(f)(6), which states that the administrative director may, by bulletin, exempt particular categories of parties from the fees specified in Administrative Rule 9(d) and (e).

Additional Fees Exemptions

CINA Cases

In a CINA case, no certifying or copying fee will be charged to an Indian custodian or tribe that is a party to the action.

Protective Proceedings

When a guardian is appointed, the court system will distribute to the guardian five free certified copies of the guardianship order and five free certified copies of the letters of guardianship.

Criminal and Minor Offense Cases

In a criminal or minor offense case, no writ of execution fee will be charged to a municipal government that is seeking to collect court-ordered fines, fees, costs, or restitution.

Attorneys Appointed under Administrative Rule 12

An attorney appointed under Administrative Rule 12 is entitled to receive one free copy of any filings involving the attorney's client.
